

Second Saturday: Art Walk

September 7, 2019

Art that's abstract, beachy, even mousey

The Brookings Second Saturday Art Walk will offer visitors all kinds of art, music and special events from 3-6 p.m. Sept. 14 right in downtown Brookings.

Special events begin at 4:00 at the PBAA/Manley Art Center, with an interview of featured artist Georgia Cockerham. The gallery theme this month is "Fluid."

Then, it's the Brian Scott Gallery at 4:45, where Judith Falconer will discuss how and why she produces her paintings based on birds and other creatures living in and around water.

Before, during and after these two special events, Ambiance by the Sea will be celebrating a "Surf's Up" theme with music, refreshments and beach-themed art by Dale Wells and others.

And at the Chetco Community Public Library, artists Dusanka Kralj, Thomas Sheets and Phillip Wadsworth will exhibit their versions of "Abstraction," while the library's lobby showcase will display Carolyn Milliman's Mickey and Minnie Mouse collection.

Most sites will provide free refreshments and live music in various musical styles. There are no admission charges, no obligation to buy.

Many of Brookings' downtown merchants stay open and welcome visitors during the art walk.
