

Seraph Brass to perform March 17 in Crescent City

March 13, 2023

Seraph Brass, comprised of five of America's top female brass players, will be showcasing their talent and captivating repertoire in concert at Crescent Elk Auditorium on Friday, March 17, at 7 p.m. as part of the Del Norte-Curry Community Concerts Association's "Music in the Redwoods" 2022-2023 concert season. Admission to the concert is free.

Winners of the 2019 American Prize in Chamber Music, Seraph Brass has made a name for themselves in the chamber music industry. The group has toured extensively throughout the U.S., Mexico, Asia and Europe, and has performed and/or been featured in some of the world's most prestigious concerts and music conferences.

They are committed to engaging audiences with their captivating repertoire that includes original transcriptions, newly commissioned works, and well-known classics.

In addition to Friday evening's performance, Seraph Brass will be presenting a program for Del Norte High School music students.

More information can be found on the association's website musicintheredwoods.com or facebook.com/dnccca

The Del Norte-Curry Community Concert Association has been presenting internationally acclaimed artists to the greater Crescent City and Brookings areas since 1949. In addition to their scheduled public concerts, the association also sponsors free master classes and outreach performances to students, as touring schedules allow.