

Arts classes offered for veterans, active military and families

June 20, 2020

Free Arts Classes

Del Norte Association for Cultural Awareness (DNACA) is offering two free arts classes for veterans, active military and their family members.

A creative writing class with Sharon McKinney will be offered on Wednesdays at 4 p.m. beginning July 8 through Aug. 26. The class will cover elements of the short story, dialogue, character development, editing, and more. Notebooks and writing utensils provided, or bring your own.

A pencil drawing class with Sarah Broderick will be offered on Thursdays, at 4 p.m. from July 9 through Aug. 6. Class will conclude with the Veterans Art Show on Aug. 13. Drawing pads and graphite pencils provided, or bring your own.

Both classes are offered free-of-charge to veterans, active military, and their family members. Families may participate whether or not the veteran attends. Due to gathering size restrictions, a limited number of students are allowed, and social distancing and masks are required. Pre-registration is required.

Classes will be held at 501 H St., Crescent City (please park in the lot behind the building).

To register, or for more information, call DNACA at 707-464-1336, or email office@dnaca.net.
