Call for Artists - Kamome Festival

As part of the Inaugural Kamome Festival, DNACA is seeking art pieces to display during the festival, being held April 14, 2023 in Crescent City. Artwork should incorporate a theme such as: friendship, boats, ocean, seagulls (Kamome means “seagull” in Japanese), tall trees, or fishing. Artwork may be in any visual art medium, and created at any time, past or present, and will be screened for inclusion in the exhibit.

The Kamome Festival will celebrate the 10-year anniversary of when the little boat called Kamome washed ashore in Crescent City as result of a tsunami in Rikuzentakata, Japan. For more information, please email office@dnaca.net.
