

Rumiano Cheese excels at American Cheese Society annual conference

August 12, 2023

Rumiano Cheese company, Crescent City received four prestigious awards at the American Cheese Society's annual conference, July 20, in Des Moines, Iowa.

The Gold medal was awarded for the Peppato cheese. Two Silver medals were given for the Ghee and Dr. Jack cheeses and a Bronze medal was given for Rumiano's Salted Butter.

Officials recognized Rumiano for the multitude of awards, a testament to the company's long history of quality and craftsmanship.

The Peppato is a California original, spiced with whole peppercorns added to the warm curd, before pressing.

In the Silver category, the Ghee impressed judges with its exceptional versatility. The classic Dr. Jack is another California original coated in cocoa and black pepper.

Rumiano's salted butter earned a Bronze award, produced from grass-fed cows and magical milkshed along Northern California's Redwood Coast.

Rumiano Cheese was founded in 1919. All the above award-winning cheeses and more are available for sampling at the retail store's 9th Street location or on-line.
