

Photos: Exquisite Garden homes on tour, Sunday July 23

July 18, 2023

Habitat for Humanity will host its annual GARDEN TOUR, Sunday, July 23 from 11-4PM.

Tickets are $20 each available at Johnston's Gift Shop, Del Norte Office Supply and each of the five homes featured on the tour.

All proceeds to benefit Del Norte Habitat for Humanity in building its sixth home in Del Norte County.

The featured homes are:

451 Langlois Dr., the home of David and Linda Langlois, an oasis of calm and beauty evolving over 43 years. Vendors and refreshments are here.

2200 Railroad Ave, the home of Briannon Fraley and Koiya Tuttle of Foraged and Farm, a family food garden in development.

6615 Kings Valley Rd, home of Lisè Hamilton, an eclectic retreat with Asian influences, including water features, statuary and garden art.

100 Red Hawk Lane, home of Cindy and Grant Henderson, a century of beautiful potted plants, fruit trees and vegetable beds. Please park at Redwood School.

131 Meadow Lane, home of Penny and Darrell Love, a restful haven with sounds of running water, the flash of Koi, fruit trees and succulents by a dry creek bed.

There's no particular order in which to enjoy each garden home.

Free Raffle ticket for sponsor prizes. Drawing at 3:30 at the Langlois home. Apologies. No pets permitted in the gardens.

For additional information, please call Ruth York, Garden Tour coordinator at (707)458-3205

