

Holiday Sale begins at Redwood National and State Parks and Forest Service Stores

December 15, 2022

Calling all friends of the redwoods: Redwood Parks Conservancy (RPC) is holding its annual Holiday Sale in their currently open park stores to December 24, 2022!

Hurry in for 15% off all merchandise storewide or 20% for all RPC members! RPC's visitor center stores are a great source of books for all ages, locally made items and unique gifts from pottery to fog globes, outdoor wear, and many other gift items related to the natural and cultural history of our area. Support the redwoods by shopping with Redwood Parks Conservancy this holiday season!

Participating stores include Hiouchi Visitor Center on Highway 199, Kuchel Visitor Center in Orick, CA, Crescent City Information Center in Crescent City, CA, Prairie Creek Visitor Center off of Newton B. Drury Parkway, Sue-meg State Park Visitor Center in Trinidad, CA and U.S. Forest Service/Smith River National Recreation Area Visitor Center in Gasquet, CA.

Redwood Parks Conservancy (RPC) is the official non-profit partner of Redwood National and State Parks, Smith River National Recreation Area, Tolowa Dunes State Park, Sue-Meg State Park, Fort Humboldt State Park and other public lands along California's far north coast.

RPC's mission is to foster understanding, enjoyment, and stewardship by providing support to its partner agencies – the National Park Service, California State Parks, the U.S. Forest Service and Tribal Partners– all of whom are entrusted with the care of northern California's public lands.

For more information, please contact us at rpc@redwoodparks.org.

Redwood Parks Conservancy is a tax-exempt organization on a mission to support your parks and public lands. Together we can do it; donate today: <https://redwoodparksconservancy.org/donate-rpc>.