

Alex Hutzell earns degree

June 20, 2020

Alex Hutzell, O.D., of Crescent City was among 134 students recently awarded the Doctor of Optometry degree from Southern College of Optometry in Memphis. While at SCO, Hutzell served as a student ambassador, where she hosted campus tours and represented the college at important functions.

A native of Crescent City, Hutzell is the daughter of Thom Hutzell and Tene Shanle-Hutzell. She is a graduate of Del Norte High School and the Oregon Institute of Technology. After graduation, she plans to join a private practice in rural southern Oregon.
