

Full-service pet boarding business opens in Crescent City

July 2, 2023

Folks sure love their dogs in Del Norte County.

Pet owners will twist and turn their lives every which way to accommodate their pups, cats and themselves. Can you blame them?

A much-needed pet boarding and doggie daycare has just opened.

26 Paws and owner Kaylee Howe opened its doors two weeks ago and provides full service daycare for your feline or canine and extended care if you are planning to travel and need to place your pet in safe hands.

26 Paws provides the following:

- Spacious kennels with platforms to keep pet out of the dirt and mud.
- Cozy weatherproof houses and wind barriers around the kennels.

- Indoor kennels and play areas for small pets.
- Large dog run for playtime during your pet's stay.

Other amenities include 24/7 pet camera, confidence-building obstacles and a puppy pool in which your best friend can frolic.

Howe's philosophy on your pet is to provide a safe and trusted place to bring your furry family furry family member.

Howe says, "bringing your pet with you along for the ride just isn't always possible. Our promise is to provide peace of mind, knowing while you're away, your pet becomes part of our pack. Pets with special needs, like diet or meds will be well accounted for. A full menu of services such as pet bathing, teeth brushing and nail trim is also available."

26 Paws is located at 300 Vipond in Crescent City.

Kaylee provides the following contact information: Call or text (661)301-9140, email 26pawsboarding&daycare.com and Facebook under 26 Paws Boarding.

Appointment hours are Thursday-Monday from 6 a.m.-5:30 p.m.
