Introduction to Head Drawing
 with Jonathan Gaetke

Have you always wanted to learn to draw? Now's your chance!

Free Introduction to Head Drawing with local artist, Jonathan Gaetke.
 Ages 12 & up.
 One day class on Sunday, October 25, 1-3 p.m.
 at Tapestry Arts Center, 224 F St., Crescent City, Ca
 Space is limited. Registration Required. Visit: www.DNACA.net or call 707-464-1336

Drawing is a skill anyone can learn. The portrait / figure is a favorite subject for many and is one of the oldest and most endearing forms of art. Learn basic head construction and gesture techniques including the "Big shape," centerline, the rule of thirds, and individual features. You will never see your neighbor the same! Experience the painterly effect of charcoal pencil on newsprint. Drawing materials will be provided.

Art in Public Places Mission Statement:
 The goal of this program is to present exhibits that promote local artists and imported artists of all ages and cultural backgrounds, and all arts media by displaying their works in a prominent public place, in order to enhance the visual arts awareness of the community.
 DNACA is a State-Local Partner, funded in part by the California Arts Council, a state agency (learn more at arts.ca.gov) and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.

Painting the Music by:

Marcia Morgan
 July 10th - Oct 22

Painted my watch,
 pawned my chain,
 Pawned everything
 that was in my name
 Oh, Lordy me, didn't I shake some Everything I got is done and pawned.
