

Acton Children's Business Fair becomes a big success

December 10, 2022

The Acton Children's Business Fair was held on Saturday, November 26, at the VFW Hall, 810 H Street, Crescent City.

At the fair, 10 booths with 12 local young entrepreneurs sold products such as jewelry, hair scrunchies, slime, lotions, bath salts, holiday creations, resin art, paracord bracelets and rice crispy treats.

Four of the booths sold products in the previous Acton Children's Business Fair held in June. Improvements in presentation and marketing were observed. 60 people came out to support this event.

One booth, Jadzia's Rice Crispy Treats, sold out.

Awards were earned for Most Original Booth, Highest Business Potential and Best Presentation for ages 6-7, 8-10 & 11-12. No 13-14-year-olds were in attendance.

- Most Original (6-7): Resin World by Connor Nehmer

- Most Original (8-10): Cocolicious by Alana Nehmer
- Most Original (11-12): Henderson Handmade Jewelry by Aedan & Braedan Henderson
- Best Presentation (6-7): Topanga's Holiday Treats by Topanga Gonzalez
- Best Presentation (8-10): POES Design by Slavisa Popadic
- Best Presentation (11-12): Henderson Handmade Jewelry by Aedan & Braedan Henderson
- Highest Business Potential (6-7): Bella Rose by Gianna Garcia
- Highest Business Potential (8-10): Doe Rae Me by Raelyn Vos

Highest Business Potential (11-12): Henderson Handmade Jewelry by Aedan & Braedan Henderson

Thank you to the sponsors - Sea of Dreams Learning Center: An Acton Academy, C Renner Petroleum, Elk Valley Rancheria, VFW Post 1381, and Gray Chiropractic. These businesses help our young entrepreneurs gain real-world experience.

These young entrepreneurs are already looking forward to the next fair.

Hope to see everyone at the next semi-annual Acton Children's Business Fair in June 2023!