

‘Almost, Maine,’ a witty comedy by the Pelican Players

February 13, 2020

You’ve never seen falling in love, quite like this. This play takes place in the very small northern town of Almost, Maine.

“Almost, Maine” is a witty telling of eight couples’ stories that are zany, happy, warm, sad and relatable; with as many twists and turns as Highway 199. The Snowmobile Club, the Moose Tavern and oh those beautiful Northern Lights: create the backdrops for the unexpected ups and downs in these eight couples’ lives.

The script is excellent and the Pelican Players deliver yet another excellent performance. A night of laughs with a few gasps, that all can enjoy.

This play is for almost everyone, whether you are in or out of love, young or young at heart, looking for love or fabulously single, all will be entertained. Another must-see theatre production in Brookings.

Shows are on Friday and Saturday at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday at 2 p.m., running Feb. 14-23 at the Pelican Players Playhouse, 1240 Chetco Ave. Tickets are $12 at the door, or call 541-469-1877, for reservations.
