

Firefighters work the scene of a blaze near Elk Valley Road and Michigan Avenue

July 24, 2019

Firefighters work the scene of a blaze that broke out July 22 near Elk Valley Road and Michigan Avenue. The fire scorched abandoned vehicles and other items, but was quickly contained and put down. There was evidence of other recent fires in close proximity. No injuries were reported. The cause of the fire was undetermined at press time.