Del Norte Triplicate

COMMUNITY

Jesus Compares His Return to the Days of Noah

By Tori King November 25, 2026

Luke 17:26-27: "Just as it was in the days of Noah, so will it be in the days of the Son of Man. They were eating and drinking and marrying and being given in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all."

The warning is that people were completely absorbed in daily life and spiritually asleep. Jesus emphasizes that people "knew nothing about what would happen" until the flood arrived. His return will catch an unprepared world off guard.

Genesis 2:5-6: They had never seen rain in those days. Streams came up and watered the whole surface of the ground. People in Noah's day assumed tomorrow would look just like it did yesterday. Because humanity had never seen rain or a global flood, God's warnings seemed impossible to everyone around Noah. Building a massive vessel on dry land looked foolish to a generation judging reality strictly by what they had seen before. We see the signs of the times today! The Bible warns us, as God warned Noah, to keep our eyes spiritually open to what is happening around us.

As Christians, we need to stay anchored in uncertain times. When global headlines bring conflict, natural disasters, economic strain, and division, we need to stay anchored spiritually according to the Word of God. Families should be praying together, and our churches should be standing together and praying over our nation. We need to pull together like we have never pulled before and pray for a dying world.

Hebrews 11:7: Noah did not wait for dark clouds or thunder to start building the ark; his reverent obedience was anchored in what God spoke, not what his eyes could see. Noah's generation missed the signs because they were not prepared.

Today: Jesus is coming back for a generation that is looking for His coming. Revival in a nation begins when individual hearts soften toward Jesus and families choose forgiveness over division. Use turbulent seasons to examine your heart, forgive quickly, love your family, and invest in what lasts. Let us pray for a genuine heart change across the nation.

Printed November 25, 2026 · © Del Norte Triplicate