

2022 Del Norte County Election results

November 9, 2022

Unofficial election night returns for the 2022 Del County General election have been tabulated by Elections Clerk Alissia Northrup.

Download the latest election results from Del Norte County here:

Voters in both the City and County overwhelmingly rejected sales tax Measure T which would have repealed the 13.5 percent City tax increase back to 7.25 percent.

511 NO 76.7 percent. 155 YES 23.2 percent.

The vote was also emphatic for Measure U County tax:

4237 NO 67.7 percent. 2023 YES 32.3 percent.

6312 votes were counted Tuesday evening with an estimated 41.2 percent voter turnout.

The Supervisor races were also interestingly very competitive.

District Four:

Joey Borges holds an 88 vote lead over Patty Adams for the seat soon to be vacated by Gerry Hemmingsen.

BORGES 797 53 percent Adams 709 47 percent

District Five:

Three-term Sheriff Dean Wilson holds a 58 vote margin over Newsom- appointed incumbent Susan Masten.

WILSON 724 52 percent Masten 668 48 percent

Commissioner Rick Shepherd appears on his way to re-election. Appointed Commissioner Gerhard Weber holds a narrow lead over candidate Kevin Hendrick for the second opening.

Harbor Commission vote leaders in CAPS:

RICK SHEPHERD	2904	GERHARD WEBER	1856	Kevin Hendrick	1828	Annie Nehmer
1683.	Linda Sutter	896

Del Norte Unified School District (Leaders in CAPS)District 2

ABBIE CRIST	487	William Meriweather	419
-------------	-----	---------------------	-----

District 5

Phillip Williams.	476	MICHAEL GREER	697
-------------------	-----	---------------	-----

The remaining estimated hundreds of ballots will be tabulated after Veterans Day, Monday, November 14.

Results remain Unofficial for 30 days.