

No Kid Hungry This Summer

July 15, 2025

Del Norte Unified School District (DNUSD) is among organizations who will receive over $126,000 from No Kid Hungry, this Summer.

DNUSD was one of nine school districts which will receive the Federal grants to make sure kids don't go hungry this summer.

With schools out for summer, traditional school nutrition and lunch programs are suspended until September.

Rural and poor communities are particularly hit hardest.

Beside DNUSD, other districts and a single community district include:

- Alta Public Schools
- Coachella Valley Unified School District
- Feeding San Diego

- Gridley Unified School District
- Marysville Joint Unified School District
- Morongo Unified S School District
- Val Verde Unified School District
- Vallecitos School District
