

Pedestrian Killed on Northcrest Drive Crosswalk

December 20, 2024

Following a California Highway Patrol (CHP) investigation into the December 4 hit and run traffic fatality on Northcrest Drive and Madison, an arrest has been made. The incident took place at approximately 6PM.

The driver of the vehicle who struck and killed Peter Jun Ming Nip, 80, who was walking across a marked crosswalk pushing a shopping cart left the scene of the incident but was arrested by the CHP. She is identified as Alexandra Danielle Diehl, 33, was taken into custody for violation of Vehicle Code 20001(a) 192 Penal Code, Hit and Run, Vehicular Manslaughter, Leaving the Scene of an accident.

According to the CHP Report, the victim was walking across the Northcrest marked crosswalk walk near his home when a 2019 Nissan Rogue struck Mr. Nip who was thrown to the number one southbound lane of Northcrest Dr. Moments later, a Toyota 4-Runner traveling northbound on Northcrest struck the personal metal shopping cart of Mr. Nip. A third vehicle, a white Kia traveling south on the southbound lane, east of Madison Avenue, the approaching driver noticed laying in the road, swerved but was unable to avoid the person. The victim was expediently transferred to Sutter Coast Hospital, but succumbed to his injuries at approximately 9PM.

The CHP received information the suspect Nissan Rogue vehicle was located and its driver, Ms. Diehl was arrested at approximately 8:35PM