

Pelican Bay recognizes National Crime Victims Week

May 2, 2023

Pelican Bay State Prison hosted a recognition luncheon for National Crime Victims' Week, April 23-29.

The event was held at the Crescent Fire Protection conference room, Thursday, April 20.

Victims of crime are often forgotten and displaced during the criminal justice journey. The week of National Crime Victims is celebrated in honor of the victims and those who offer aid during this trying time.

PBSP Community Relations Manager Robert Losacco welcomed guests from the law enforcement community to the annual luncheon.

Police Chief Richard Griffin honored Officer Daniel Sanders Harrington House director Sherry Hertz honored Yesenia Loya-Sanchez .

District Attorney Katie Micks applauded Claudia Fuentes and Michelle Zink.

Undersheriff Devin Perry filling in for Sheriff Garrett Scott spotlighted Sgt. Sarah Asbury.

Health and Human Services Crystal Neilson acclaimed Anna Tollini.

CASA Director Christine Slette was unable to attend but honored Karen Hoffmon.

Warden Steven Smith thanked all guests who attended and acknowledged PBSP kitchen staff for a superb lunch.