

Del Norte County leans conservative in state races

November 10, 2022

Governor Gavin Newsom again lost another Del Norte County election, while cruising to re-election for his second term. Brian Dahle beat Newsom by the same margin he lost the statewide race: 60 percent to 40 percent.

The same dynamic affected (CA-2) Congressman Jared Huffman (D), State Senator Mike McGuire (D) and Assemblymember Jim Wood (D), each of the incumbents lost to challengers Douglas Brower, Gene Yoon and Charlotte Svolos, respectively 55 percent to 45 percent in Del Norte County while easily winning 70 plus percent victories across their respective constituent Districts.

Newsom's judicial appointments for the supreme and appeals court were confirmed by voters across the Golden State, but Del Norte voters rejected the nominees including Chief Justice Patricia Guerrero, Associate Justices Goodwin Liu, Martin Jenkins and Joshua Groban. Appeals Court justices Theresa Stewart, Alison Tucher, Victor Rodriguez, Ioana Petrou, Carin Fujisaki. Jeremy Goldman, Tracie Brown and Gordon Burns were all confirmed across the state but each failed to earn the approval of Del Norte County voters.

The voting for Propositions in Del Norte County:

Prop 1. Right to Abortion. YES (Passed in State.)

Prop 26. Sports Wagering. NO (Failed in State)

Prop 27. Allows off Tribal lands sports wagering. NO. (Failed in State)

Prop 28. Music education funding. YES (Passed in State)

Prop 29. Kidney Dialysis. NO (Failed in State)

Prop 30. Air Pollution. NO (Failed in State)

Prop 31. Flavored tobacco. NO (Passed in State).