

Unofficial results released from 2024 General Election

November 8, 2024

An additional 3,000 Vote-by-Mail ballots were dropped off just before 8pm Election night and were counted Friday, November 8. No changes to report have taken place.

Registrar of Voters Alissia Northrup will tally an additional 1624 ballots, Thursday, November 14 at 2pm.

Local election for Harbor Commission is as follows:

The vote is unofficial until certification. 30 days after the November 5 election.

DAN SCHMIDT

ANNIE NEHMER

JOHN EVANS

Are the top three vote-getters

Devon Morgante trails Evans by 123 votes.

Linda Sutter

Write-in candidate Harry Adams round out the six candidates running for the three openings on the Harbor Commission.

Measure H $59 million DNUSD school bond and Measure I $120 million College of the Redwoods are heading for defeat.