

Girl missing from Crescent City

August 2, 2021

13-year-old Katauna Whisenant was reported as a runaway out of the Crescent City area on July 23, according to police.

She was last seen wearing a maroon colored Aeropostale hoodie, black sweats and white Croc shoes. She is 5'5" and about 150 lbs. with brown eyes and dark brown hair.

Police Chief Richard Griffin said Whisenant has run away before. They believe she may be headed to the Santa Rosa area, as that is where police found her last time she ran away. They have contacted Whiseant's relatives in Santa Rosa.

If you have seen Katauna or may know where she currently is, please call the Crescent City Police Department at 707-464-2133 during business hours, or call DNSO Dispatch 707-464-4191. You can also send an email to CCPD at ccpd@crescentcity.org, or simply send a private message to this Facebook account.

