

Unofficial Results Released from 2024 General Election

November 19, 2024

An additional 4,000 Vote-by-Mail ballots were dropped off just before 8pm Election night and most were counted Friday afternoon, November 8. No changes from the previous tally have taken place.

Registrar of Voters Alissia Northrup has tallied an additional 1624 ballots, Thursday, November 14 at 2pm. The votes have not been added to the gross unofficial Del Norte County vote.

Local election for Harbor Commission is as follows:

The vote is unofficial until certification. 30 days after the November 5 election.

- DAN SCHMIDT
- ANNIE NEHMER
- JOHN EVANS

are the top three vote-getters...

- Devon Morgante trails Evans by 123 votes.
- Linda Sutter remains in the #5 position
- Write-in candidate Harry Adams rounds out the six candidates running for the three openings on the Harbor Commission.
- Measure H $59 million DNUSD school bond and
- Measure I $120 million College of the Redwoods Facilities Bond are heading for defeat. Both needed to pass at a 55 percent threshold but failed to reach even the majority vote.
