

Weather: Hazardous Weather Outlook, Wind Advisory

December 5, 2019

The National Weather Service has issued a Hazardous Weather Outlook for Coastal Del Norte, Northern Humboldt Coast and the Mendocino Coast.

FRIDAY THROUGH WEDNESDAY

A storm system will bring periods of moderate to heavy rain Friday and Saturday. Locally gusty south winds of 25 to 35 mph are possible.

INLAND ADVISORY

The National Weather Service has issued a Wind Advisory, in effect from 10 p.m. Thursday to noon Friday for Del Norte Interior, Southwestern Humboldt, Northern Humboldt Interior and Southern Humboldt Interior counties.

WHAT

The Wind Advisory is currently in effect late tonight above 1,500 feet elevation. Gusty southerly winds up to 40 to 50 mph across exposed ridges will precede a front on Friday.

NEXT EVENT

A Wind Advisory is in effect Friday morning for gusty southerly winds up to 40 to 50 mph across exposed ridges, which will precede a front on Friday. Rain will push in by Friday afternoon, and heavy downpours will persist Saturday, with several inches of total rainfall possible across southwest-facing mountainous terrain.
