

City appoints Public Works Director, councilor takes Oath

January 24, 2023

Crescent City appointed David Yeager as its new public works director. Yeager, a City resident, has been a Construction Manager for 35 years.

A graduate of California State University, Chico has worked for Granite Construction and Hemmingsen Contracting. Yeager assumes his new position January 23.

New Councilor-appointee Kelly Shellong took her seat on the dias after City Clerk Robin Altman administered her Oath of Office at the Tuesday City Council meeting.
