Walmart store #1910 in Crescent City brought lots of joy and cheer to this holiday season by donating three pallets of brand new clothing and shoes to Del Norte County's needy. The retail value of the donation was about $5,000.

Distribution of clothes for kids, teen, women, men and plus sizes were made to the Family Resource Center last Friday between the hours of 2-5 p.m.

Head Program Coordinator Daisy Carrillo and Program Coordinator Rebecca Aria announced 128 individuals and families benefited from the generous Walmart donation.

Carrillo also reported FRC gave away 50 free diapers to each newborn and toddler. The center also distributes Similac baby formula and burritos for school lunches.

Aria reported the Family Resource Center conducts a food pantry every Thursday between 2-6 p.m.

The Family Resource Center is located at 494 Pacific Avenue in Crescent City.
