

A picture that tells the whole story

July 3, 2023

The blighted medical building at 200 A Street has been abated. Next week, the concrete slab will be removed.

Crescent City and the community thank Richardson Griswold, court-appointed receiver, for its continued effort to improve the quality of life in Crescent City.