

Second installment of property tax payments still due by Friday

April 7, 2020

Del Norte County Tax Collector Barbara M. Lopez reminds taxpayers that the second installment of 2019-20 property taxes is still due and will become delinquent if not paid by April 10. The tax collector has no legal authority to extend the due date.

But, for those who are directly impacted by the COVID-19 crisis and who are unable to pay timely, a penalty waiver process after April 10 may be available to you. Lopez encourages everyone who can pay taxes to do so. Property tax dollars directly support essential services such as schools, emergency response and public health.

The Tax Collector's Office will be open to the public on Thursday, April 9 and Friday, April 10 to assist taxpayers with their payments. The entrance and exit to the tax collector's office will be clearly marked and social distancing will be in effect, which may result in longer wait times. Please be patient.

For the health and safety of employees and the community, Lopez strongly encourage taxpayers to mail tax payments, pay electronically or use their secure drop box. If you can avoid coming into the office, please do so. For your convenience, The Tax Collector's Office has a secure payment drop box outside the main entry doors at the Flynn Administration Building (southeast entrance), located at 981 H. St., in Crescent City.

You can also pay your taxes by mail, online or by phone. Property taxes can be paid by check, money order or cashier's check through the mail. You may also pay with a credit/debit card, E-Check online at www.co.del-norte.ca.us/departments/treasurer-tax-collector or by calling the automated system at 1-866-477-2399. Please be aware, fees apply if you are making an electronic payment. If you are unable to pay using one of the above methods, please contact the office for further assistance.

If you need assistance making an electronic payment or have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to call the Tax Collector's Office at (707) 464-7283. The Tax Collector's Office will have staff available to answer calls, emails and to process tax payments.
