
Weather Service offers spotter training course

October 3, 2020

Attention northwest California weather enthusiasts! Are you interested in learning more about the weather while also helping the National Weather Service accomplish its mission?

If so, NWS Eureka is offering online spotter training sessions in October. The classes are 3 and 7 p.m. Oct. 8 and 7 p.m. Oct. 14. Training includes a basic overview of thunderstorms and other local weather phenomena, as well as how to properly identify and report these features. To register for the training courses, go to bit.ly/36mTAVu.

For more information, go to www.weather.gov/eureka or to NWS Eureka Facebook page.
