

Ronald Lloyd Kendall

October 11, 2019

Ronald has been a long term resident of Crescent City, California. He spent about 8 months in the Crescent City Nursing Skills facility and moved to Brookings just last week under the care of his 20 year friend Lester Cramer

After retirement he spent many hours bowling in a league in Crescent City with his friends, Ryan, Justin, and Lester Cramer and others. One of his hobbies was fishing in his small boat off the coast of Crescent City.

He is survived by several brothers living outside this area.

Family and friends are invited to a memorial services that will be held in the Brookings Seventh-day Adventist Church on Oct. 12, 2019, at 11:00am followed by a luncheon at 12:30pm. His remains are now at the Redwood Memorial Chapel at 1020 Fifield St., Brookings, Oregon.
