

Dean Larsen

April 4, 2023

Dean Larsen, born on August 15, 1945, left this world on March 14, 2023, leaving behind a legacy of love, laughter, and endless memories. He was the beloved husband of Brenda Larsen and a cherished father to Deanna, Denise, Danielle, Austin, Kota, and Darby, as well as an additional 11 stepchildren. He was a proud grandfather to many grandchildren who will always remember him with fondness.

Dean's journey began in Crescent City, California, where he established his business, Coast Glass, and spent most of his life. However, in 2013, he relocated to Carson City, Nevada, where he spent his final years surrounded by his loving family, including his daughter Darby and two of his precious grandchildren, Nathaniel and Abigail, and his long-time family friend, Mickey Earls.

Dean was known for his generous nature, and he never missed a chance to help others. He had an infectious sense of humor, and his jokes always brought laughter to those around him. He had an ability to light up the room with his presence and made everyone feel at ease. His love for making people laugh will always be remembered.

Dean loved his family more than anything else, and his devotion to them was unwavering. He was an exceptional husband to Brenda, and their love for each other was inspiring to all who knew them. He was a doting father to his children, always supportive and encouraging.

Dean's legacy will live on through the countless memories he has left behind. He will be missed dearly by all who knew him, but his spirit and the impact he had on their lives will never be forgotten. Rest in peace, Dean, and may your sense of humor continue to bring joy to those in the afterlife.

With Love, MSA/LLS In lieu of a funeral, friends and family will gather to share memories of Dean.
