

Wendell R. Stamps

June 20, 2023

There has come a time of parting and a saying of good-bye to a partnership of love. He was a steadfast person, strong in faith and love for family and country.

You knew him by his actions. He leaves behind many grown children in alphabetical order, Cynthia, Carolyn, Eddie, Eva, Kari, Margie, Rockey, and Sandy. One sibling remains, Alvin Stamps (wife: Janice) and numerous grandchildren, nephews, and nieces.

His memories fill the very walls of the home we shared. He will not be forgotten. To those left behind, friends or family, never let yourself forget the wonder of love and friendship and its value which lives in the heart forever.

Wendell Ray Stamps, you are the candle that will never lose its light in my memory. As your wife, I cherish you.

You were born in Stigler, Oklahoma on November 16th, 1940. Preceding you from this old world and earth, were your beloved parents Ben and Sadie Stamps. Two children, Syndia and Wendell Jr. A beloved nephew

Tim plus Alvin Jr and your siblings, Winnie, and Edna along with a grandson Curtis.

May God keep us all in His shelter of goodness and guide our feet to wonderful places.

Wendell served his country for nearly nine years, a part spent in Korea during the 'Peace Talks'. Wendell was a Staff Sgt, in the Military Police.

God Bless America and God Bless you.
