Trina Faiello

June 4, 2025

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of our beloved Trina Faiello, who died on Sunday, December 29, 2024. Trina was a cherished daughter, wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend to so many. She leaves behind an enduring legacy of kindness, generosity, and love.

From a young age, Trina brightened every room with her laughter and warmth. She had an innate ability to make those around her feel seen, valued, and cared for, no matter how briefly she crossed their paths. Her selfless heart led her to reach out to anyone in need, whether by offering a comforting word or a helping hand.

For those of us that loved and knew Trina, we know of the struggles that had plagued her for most of her life. She faced many of battles bravely and, despite these struggles, her heart never hardened. Trina’s generous spirit, whether expressed in her warm hugs, her laughter, or her knack for making everyone feel like family, remained the essence of who she was.

While her passing was unexpected, her family takes comfort in remembering the light she brought into their lives. They will forever cherish the beautiful memories of Trina’s boundless kindness and the strong love she had for every member of her family. Her loved ones will especially take immense comfort in the knowledge that Trina will finally be reunited with her beloved son Jack, her father Jack and her brother Eric.

Trina is preceded in death by: father John “Jack” Wilson; son Jack Fitzhugh; brother Eric Wilson. Trina is survived by: husband Lou Faiello; mother, Mavis (Dennis) Knight; sisters, Kris (Mike) McMillan, Marla (Mark)Van Lienden; children, Pete, Ryan, Misty and her many grandchildren.

Printed November 3, 2026 · © Del Norte Triplicate