OBITUARIES

Beverly Jean Schenandoah

September 15, 2025

It is with deep sorrow and much love that we mourn the passing of Beverly Jean Schenandoah, a devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, mother-in-law, and friend, who departed this life on August 27, 2025, at the age of 78. Beverly was the proud and loving mother of four children, grandmother to seven, and great-grandmother to four. She led her family with unwavering dedication, strength, and compassion. Her love knew no limits, she was the heart of the family, a guiding light, and a constant source of comfort and encouragement. Born in Canastota, New York, on December 11, 1946, Beverly lived a life filled with kindness, faith, and quiet resilience. Whether it was through her warm embrace, wise counsel, or delicious home-cooked meals, she made everyone around her feel cared for and welcomed. She will be remembered for her gentle spirit, boundless generosity, her deep love of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, and the countless ways she expressed love to those around her. Her legacy lives on in her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and all who were fortunate enough to know her. She was an incredible woman who will never be forgotten. Beverly is survived by her three children: Wendy Rinkel, Richard Schenandoah, and Anne-Marie Schenandoah; her seven grandchildren: Amanda Cornelison, Amber Black, Rebecca Black, Jacob Rinkel, Alexander Rinkel, Arianna Crawford, and Ali Crawford; and her four great-grandchildren:

Billy Cornelison, Brooke Cornelison, Aubree Long, and Landon Black. She is also survived by her sister Shirley Ellis, brother William Wesseldine, and son-in-law Herman Rinkel. She was preceded in death by her beloved son, Gerald Schenandoah. All who knew and loved Beverly are welcome to attend and celebrate her beautiful life. She may be gone from our sight, but she will never be gone from our hearts.
