

Letter: The Mandatory Retirement Age Amendment to the US Constitution

September 22, 2023

The mandatory retirement ages for federal government employees should be as follows:

President of the United States = 85 years old

Vice President of the United States = 85 years old

United States Senator = 80 years old

US Supreme Court Justice = 80 years old

Presidential Cabinet Members = 75 years old

United States Representative = 75 years old

Sub-Cabinet Level Department Heads = 70 years old

Federal Judges and Prosecutors = 70 years old

All Other Federal Government Employees = 65 years old

Jake Pickering

