

Letter: Pathetic

March 11, 2022

I see where the true voice of the Trump GOP, Tucker Carlson, has ginned up the racist followers by questioning the education and intelligence of Biden's pick for the SCOTUS. I don't believe he was so concerned when the drunk frat boy Kavanaugh, or the religious cult member Coney Barrett were being considered.

Carlson also through in the not so subtle racist trope of purposely mispronouncing Ms. Ketanji's name. A similar tactic the radical right did to Kamala Harris. I guess if a woman is Black and has a name suited to her race/or ethnicity, the racists like Carlson feel she must be put through more rigid standards than a white person they prefer. Pathetic.
