

Letter: Controversial editorials gained the respect of many

July 27, 2022

I am sorry to hear that you lost some customers, but you gained the respect and admiration of many more. I told everyone I know about the article, ones that get the paper and those who don't, and they all agreed with your point of view and especially those I go to church with.

Whatever happened to free speech? They want to change boys to girls and vice versus and kill babies which should all be given some great thought. I also know women who did have an abortion and have lived to regret it.

There are many ways to prevent pregnancy, so you just have to be responsible and respect your body.

Your article was the top of all. I have read about many subjects over many many years and newspapers like Chicago Tribune, Denver Post, Rocky Mountain News, Sacramento Bee, San Francisco Chronicle just to name a few.

Once again, congratulations on a wonderful editorial two weeks in a row. I also know it took a lot of thought to do so, but stand strong and proud.

I also sent a letter about it to Fox News or I should say email. But am disappointed with them as I ordered merchandise from them and found out afterward it was made in China, but that's another story.

We are lucky to have you as our editor and hopefully as a neighbor.

Barbara Trammel

Barbara, Thank you for your kind thoughts. They mean a lot to me at this time. Dan Schmidt.
