

Letter: Thank you, Mr. Burrell

April 14, 2023

In response to the insightful letter to the editor April 5, 2023, written by Joe Burrell: - what an absolutely great way to analyze political issues.

I made a worksheet for each point in his letter and will use it for each article or program that discusses political issues. Maybe if we all did this, our legislators would be likely to listen and our votes would HIRE legislators that will listen to the majority. Bless you Mr. Burrell for opening my thought processes.
