

Opinion: His Imperial Majesty, King Gavin Newsom wears no clothes

December 5, 2024

Opinion

Thinking just the other day, hasn't Gavin Newsom and the California Democrat-led Legislature done enough to destroy the State of California during these past six years? Didn't Newsom and his buddies in the Sacramento government get the recent memo sent very clearly by the people of this Country? Abortion, climate change, Environmental mandates, and Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DNACA) do not appear anywhere on the list of problems adults in the United States of America care most about.

Newsom should try the economy, crime, homelessness, illegal immigration, and high taxes, then Governor "hair gel" Newsom might just figure out where he and the Democrats have gone off the rails. Of course, here in California that would be a heavy lift for progressives and liberals in the State to find that their favorite policies simply don't make the cut in a national election.

Newsom, the faux emperor, wears no clothes. What that means is we in the illegitimate public sector need to think for ourselves. The emperor is not telling us the truth.

A mere two days after the election of Donald Trump for a second term in the White House, our empty suited emperor buffoon in the California governor's mansion promptly stuck both feet in his mouth by issuing a Proclamation to all citizens of the State informing them of his intention to attack the lawfully-elected President of this Country should President Trump “not see things the Governor’s way”...Some NONSENSE about California’s values.

Wow! That’s rich.

Leave it to Newsom to think a governor outranks the President.

Clearly Gavin Newsom, thinks he runs things and wishes to inflict his brand of failed policies on the rest of the Country no matter what the national voters think. He already is the proud owner of a State-leading nation in homelessness, highest taxes, lowest student test scores and illegal immigration galore. Good Grief! Haven’t you wreaked enough havoc, Mr. Emperor? California continues its woes with onerous heavy regulation, population loss, obsession with climate change, tax payer funded abortion for out of state “victims,” destructive EV mandates, and a spiking inflation. The list of Newsom’s disasters since he has been in office is kilometers long.

His intent to call a special legislative session for December 2nd to prepare for legal combat with the Trump White House in the coming four years is nothing short of showmanship and more wasted dollars in a State that is financially in decline. Like many historical autocrats, Gavin Newsom thinks his actions have no consequences. Tax dollars can be thrown into a black hole for which there is no benefit to the people he serves.

The California Democrat stranglehold on power took a major hit this November, and two more years of Governor Gavin Newsom’s inability to wake up to the tides of change will only hasten the demise. Newsom’s reasons for a “Special Session” of the Legislature have all the markings of a disgruntled, petulant toddler who didn’t get his way on November 5th. He has become the king who wears no clothes. The economy, not abortion, crime not climate change, lower taxes not higher taxes, less regulation not more, less immigration not more illegal immigration, are things people wish to see. Unfortunately, the man in the empty suit thinks he knows best is “ill-suited” to lead California and Newsom’s results are a stark portrait of his nakedness.

Gavin Newsom is not a king. He should not be able to act like one. California shouldn’t be allowed to go to war with the Federal Government. He won’t pay the price that the citizens of this State will. Newsom’s “Special Session” should rightly be labeled AN ABUSE OF POWER! The Legislature should be telling him to go pound sand!

Put your clothes back on Mr. Newsom. You are no emperor, you are just a failed bureaucrat whose days are numbered.