

Letter: Connected to Dan

August 30, 2022

I met Daniel half a year ago or more and really connected with his ideas and his friendship.

He really has a passion like no other journalist I've met in the past, especially for our town.

Dan told me he wanted to revive the local paper and he expressed to me the important fact of doing so.

I hope Dan is well , and I want to express my own care for his return or wherever he isto allow him to know he has friends who care about his journeys.

Elias Mavris

Crescent City