
Letter: The big lie theory for the last 4 years

December 2, 2020

In Germany in the 1930s, there was what was called the “big lie.” The theory was if you said it often enough and loud enough, people would believe it. This is what has been frothing forth from 1600 Penn. Ave., AKA Black Lives Matter Avenue for the last four years concerning voter fraud. It is interesting to note that never has it even been even a minor issue. Now it is the issue.

In the wording of Oliver Cromwell in 1653 to someone long forgotten: “You have sat too long here for any good you have been doing. Depart, I say, and let us have done with you. In the name of God, go!”
