

Letter: Thank you Mr. Editor

August 9, 2022

How refreshing to open the Triplicate and find a pro-life editorial. Excellent. Thank you, Mr. Editor. I purchased a year's subscription to the Triplicate in support of this Editor who has the spine to advocate for the unborn. Then in the July 15 edition of the Triplicate, there is a further, and personal, editorial..."50 years later, still an unhealed hole in the heart."

Bless you for sharing your own heart-rending experience, Mr. Editor. Yours is just one of the millions of stories of the loss of a child. It is up to all of us to stand for life, to protect the most innocent and helpless of all, the unborn. If there is anyone who is with child, who reads this letter and is not sure of what to do, I offer my services in assisting her. There are avenues for help, and encouragement. Don't despair...there are lots of folks who care and who will help.

Thanks again, Mr. Editor. I applaud you for urging the folks to CHOOSE LIFE.
